Dear Mr. Meeker,

Glad you are doing okay with your private publication, but sorry it was necessary.

On Fyne, be prepared for his customary dishonesty, for his trying to make a spectacle of you. Also, I made a mistake in not getting my address on, for without that the exposure does a private-publisher no good.

They did not pay my expenses. Each time I was there anyway.

Whatever they promise you or lead you to believe will be of no meaning if they decide otherwise.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
